Design Honors

CarrierJohnson + CULTURE captures top honors for Point Loma Nazarene University's new Science Center

CarrierJohnson + CULTURE, an award winning San Diego architecture and interior design firm, has added to its achievements by capturing top design honors for the recently completed 36,000-square foot Science Center at Point Loma Nazarene University.

The innovative design, marked by a curved stainless-steel environmental screen and its prominent coastal site, has become a memorable home for the university's rapidly growing and acclaimed interdisciplinary science program, unifying modern Christian values with a broad curriculum and state-of-the-art technology, laboratories and classrooms.

In recent days, the PLNU Science Center has garnered major honors and kudos including a grand award in the 53rd annual Gold Nugget Awards, handed out at the Pacific Coast Builders Conference in San Francisco.

University leaders have commended the new academic landmark for supporting "excellent teaching, careful mentoring, and hands-on learning, the hallmark of the PLNU Science Program," said University President Bob Brower.

Under the direction of founding principal Gordon R. Carrier, the project designed the new facility to connect to the existing Rohr Science building, which will be completed in the next phase. The resulting complex will have an elevated walkway leading to a patio, with expansive views of the Pacific Ocean.

In between the new and old science centers, CarrierJohnson + CULTURE designed an outdoor classroom, a useful space in reliably temperate San Diego. Below the four classrooms are 13 advanced labs for biology, chemistry, and anatomy, all part of Point Loma Nazarene University's mission to spark scientific discovery and the spirit of service.

Since 2004, over 90 percent of PLNU students who applied for admission to medical, dental, optometry, pharmacy and veterinary schools have been admitted.

This year, PLNU earned a major six-figure grant from the National Science Foundation for students in the STEM disciplines – science, technology, engineering and mathematics – who also minor in computational science while undergraduates at Point Loma Nazarene University.

The new science center has been called one of the most significant capital campaigns for the campus in years and fittingly it is now seen as the heart of the campus.

What good is the “right” treatment if the diagnosis is wrong?

Based on the medical cases reviewed by our physicians, 1 out of 3 diagnoses in the U.S. require correction or refinement. And 75% of the reviewed treatment plans need modification. In fact, medical errors are a leading cause of injury and even death in our country.

Best Doctors is out to change that. We help ensure the right diagnosis and treatment by providing patients with access to world-class medical experts for second opinions, treatment guidance and more. Our services are offered nationwide as an employee benefit by companies like The Home Depot and many other Fortune 500 companies. Find out if your company offers Best Doctors and keep your health care on the right track.

Helping patients get the right diagnosis and the right treatment.

Below are a few case studies where Best Doctors made an impact.

Marion was involved in a serious car accident and began experiencing headaches, neck pain and dizziness. Medical test results revealed nothing, yet her condition worsened. A Best Doctors specialist reviewed her case and discovered an undetected brain injury, as well as soft tissue injury and even a possible concussion. The expert provided a step-by-step plan to put Marion on the right course for treatment.

A lump on Simon's hand was diagnosed as a noncancerous ganglion cyst. Less than two weeks after surgery to remove it, the lump grew back, bigger than before. A Best Doctors specialist reviewed Simon's case and found Simon was positive for a cancer called fibrous histiocytoma. The specialist recommended further surgery and Simon avoided the consequences of a life-threatening situation.

Alex, a runner and mother of two, lived for years with a malfunctioning heart valve. She always took the necessary precautionary steps with her cardiologist to watch for any changes in symptoms, such as feelings of fatigue, fainting, and shortness of breath. Alex felt healthy, until one race in 2012, which she struggled to complete. Something wasn't right. She decided to have her case reviewed by a Best Doctors cardiology expert. The expert recommended an immediate valve repair, noting that Alex's condition had become severe and was endangering her heart. She had the surgery and is on the path to recovery, grateful for the services Best Doctors provided.

Best Doctors, Inc. is transforming and improving health care by bringing together the best medical minds in the world to help identify the right diagnosis and treatment. The company's innovative, peer-to-peer consultation service offers a new way for physicians to collaborate with other physicians to ensure patients receive the best care.

Headquartered in Boston, MA, the global company seamlessly integrates its services with employers' other health-related benefits, to serve more than 30 million members in every major region of the world.

More than a traditional second opinion, Best Doctors delivers a comprehensive evaluation of a patient's medical condition – providing value to both patients and treating physicians. By utilizing Best Doctors, members have access to the brightest minds in medicine to ensure the right diagnosis and treatment plan.

Best Doctors' team of researchers conducts a biennial poll using the methodology that mimics the informal peer-to-peer process doctors themselves use to identify the right specialists for their patients. Using a polling method and balloting software, that Gallup® has audited and certified, they gather the insight and experience of tens of thousands of leading specialists all over the country, while confirming their credentials and specific areas of expertise.

The result is the Best Doctors in America® List, which includes the nation's most respected specialists and outstanding primary care physicians in the nation. These are the doctors that other doctors recognize as the best in their fields. They cannot pay a fee and are not paid to be listed and cannot nominate or vote for themselves. It is a list which is truly unbiased and respected by the medical profession and patients alike as the source of top quality medical information.

DONOVAN'S STEAK & CHOP HOUSE

Always a treat, wherever it's located

By David Rottenberg

"Change you location, change your luck!" An old Russian saying advises that, if a business is not doing well, move to a new location.

Donovan's Steak & Chop House served legions of satisfied and loyal patrons for years at its two locations in San Diego. One is located at Sixth Avenue and K Street, in the heart of Downtown. The second was located in a distinctive freestanding building in the heart of UTC in La Jolla, where millions of dollars are now being spent on redevelopment of the regional shopping centers.

The La Jolla location was at the feet of many large office buildings whose occupants often poured out of their workplaces at the ends of days to press three-deep at the bar at Donovan's to wash away the day's stresses with good drinks and complimentary steak sandwiches. The interior had the feel of a private "British" club, whose walls were lined with dark woods, whose booths and tables offered softly lit privacy and where the food and service were impeccable.

But, it is an old and familiar story. The landlord apparently did not want to renew the lease. So, despite the anguished howls of its fiercely loyal clientele and despite its roaring success at this location, Donovan's had to move.

It took a bit of time to find a new location and to redevelop the property. Donovan's moved into the old Azul location on Prospect Street in the heart of La Jolla village. In the tradeoff, the dark wood paneling is gone but magnificent ocean views more than make up for the difference.

On the evening I dined at Donovan's, many of the diners were clustered around the windows. A pod of seven whales were cavorting just off the coast in the bay, giving new meaning to "you never know whom you're going to see at Donovan's."

Interior with view

Along with a new location, the company employed a new executive chef, Fernando Mackenzie, whose goal is to achieve greater consistency between the locations (including the one in Phoenix) and to raise the already high bar of quality to an even higher standard.

Mackenzie has run multi-million-dollar dining operations and has received many honors during his outstanding career. He graduated third in his class of over 1,000 students from the CCA in San Francisco. He went on to win many gold medals in culinary competitions. He directed culinary operations at several large casinos including Commerce Casino and Valley View Casino.

Mackenzie does not intend to change menus but rather to make sure that what comes out of his kitchens are as good as they can be.

Parking may be tough at times in La Jolla but there is valet parking at the curb. Then one moves down a short flight of stairs to enter the reception area of the restaurant. To one side, one can see a cooler displaying row upon row of vintage bottles of wine from Donovan's award-winning collection. And, on the other side, a long comfortable bar leads into the dining room. There is also a display of a few of the many awards won by the restaurant.

Many loyal customers have found the new location so the restaurant didn't miss a beat of business. In fact, a whole new group of customers are now flocking — residents from the nearby La Jolla hills and visitors who are staying at nearby La Jolla hotels.

All steaks at Donovan's are "prime." That means that the meats and chops of only a small percentage of available beef are served, because the texture and marbling of "prime" is rare. But prime translates into an amazing taste sensation. I think that, even blindfolded, I could pick out the prime.

The meats are never frozen but aged to bring out all their flavors. The "bone in" New York and the "bone in" Rib Chop cuts are favorites because grilling with the bone in adds so much to the ultimate taste. Some are served with a flower on top. I actually ate mine, so I guess it is ok. The New York steak it was served on literally "melted" in my mouth.

Even though Donovan's could be "carnivore heaven," the other offerings are equally tempting. A Seafood Tower consists of mounds of Australian Rock Lobster, Alaska King Crab Legs, Blue Point Oysters and large Mexican gulf shrimp. This group appetizer could be a meal unto itself.

The menu lists many other dishes, including pork chop, veal chop, lamb, halibut and salmon. Even chicken is available, the terrific "Shelton" brand. My companions raved about the halibut.

Meals such as these deserve to be accompanied by fine wine. Donovan's has won the Wine Spectator award, which is given only to those restaurants whose wine lists are broad, extensive and representative also of their region.

Meals such as these deserve to be accompanied by fine desserts. Amazing New York style cheesecake and crème brulee are available, both served with strawberries. Triple Chocolate Brownies with vanilla ice cream and strawberries is delightful. Traditionalists will love the Dutch Apple Pie.

The new Donovan's is slightly smaller than the old, so it is even busier. But the restaurant is adding on and will soon open an outdoor dining area with remarkable views of the bay.

Reservations are strongly recommended. The Donovan's Steak & Chop House of La Jolla is located at 1520 Prospect St. in the heart of La Jolla village. Call (858) 450-6666 for reservations and information.
